

CyberShield AI Chat Report

USER: Congratulations! You won ₹50,000. Click here to claim your prize. Share your OTP and UPI PIN immediately.

ASSISTANT: Don't click on that link! This message is a classic phishing scam. Scammers are trying to trick you into sharing sensitive information like your One-Time Password (OTP) and Unified Payment Interface (UPI) PIN. Here's what you should do: 1. Don't click on the link: Avoid clicking on any suspicious links, especially those that ask for personal or financial information. 2. Verify the prize: Check with the organization or company that supposedly awarded you the prize to confirm the details. They should be able to provide you with a legitimate way to claim your prize. 3. Don't share sensitive info: Never share your OTP, UPI PIN, or any other sensitive information via email, text message, or phone call. 4. Report the scam: Forward this phishing message to the relevant authorities, such as your bank's customer care number or the cybersecurity helpline in your country. Stay safe online! Remember: If a prize or offer seems too good to be true, it probably is!
